

Comprital is the ideal partner for the big and medium size ice cream producer.

Comprital knows that producing a good quality industrial frozen yoghurt is not easy and that the product itself is just a small part of this complexity. The firm wants to be an ideal partner for the small and medium ice cream industry with tailored ingredients and “pre start” assistance on, for example, production lay out, raw material selection, legal matters and labels and nutrition facts. A fast and reliable service, something that makes COMPRITAL a unique company in the industrial frozen yoghurt ingredient industry.
